- vi. The appointment of the auditor, if required;
- vii. Reports from Board Committees, Society Community Committees, Joe Rich Fire Department and Central Okanagan Regional District Electoral Area East Director;
- viii. Any other business that, under these bylaws, is brought under consideration by the report of the Directors issued with the notice convening the Meeting.

4.6. No business, other than the election of a Chairperson and the adjournment or termination of the meeting, shall be conducted at a General Meeting at a time when a quorum is not present.

4.7. Quorum for the transaction of business at a General Meeting or Extraordinary General Meeting is ten (10) voting Members of the Society.

4.8. If, within fifteen (15) minutes from the time scheduled for holding a General Meeting, a quorum of voting Members is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Members, must be terminated, but in any other case, the meeting stands adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, and if, at the continuation of the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within fifteen (15) minutes from the time scheduled for holding the continuation of the adjourned meeting, the voting Members who are present constitute a quorum for that meeting.

4.9. If, at any time during a General Meeting, there ceases to be a quorum of voting Members present, business then in progress must be suspended until there is a quorum present. If, at the continuation of the adjourned meeting, a quorum is again not present, the voting Members present constitute a quorum for the purposes of that meeting.

4.10. The President of the Society or, in the absence of the President, one of the other Directors present, must preside as Chairperson of a General Meeting.

4.11. If at a General Meeting:

- (a) There is no Chairperson or other Director present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time scheduled for holding the Meeting; or,
- (b) The Chairperson and all the other Directors present are unwilling to act as the Chairperson, then the voting Members present must choose one (1) of the Members to be the Chairperson.

4.12. Meeting Adjournment:

- (a) The Chairperson of a General Meeting, or, if so directed by the voting Members at the meeting, may adjourn the meeting from time to time, but no new business may be transacted at the continuation of the adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the adjourned meeting;
- (b) Except as provided in these Bylaws, it is not necessary to give notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned General Meeting, except that, when a General Meeting is adjourned for ten (10) days or more, notice of the continuation of the adjournment meeting must be given.

4.13. In the case of a tie vote the Chairperson only shall have a casting vote and the proposed resolution may pass.

4.14. A Member in good standing present at a General Meeting is entitled to one (1) vote.

4.15. A Member not in good standing is not entitled to vote.

4.16. Voting is by recorded show of hands with the exception of: Elections, Special Resolutions, Constitution and or Bylaw changes and or additions, Disciplinary Action, Annual Financials and Budget Approvals which will be done by ballot.

4.17. Voting by absentee ballot will be permitted under the following conditions:

- (a) Elections;
- (b) Constitution and or Bylaw changes and or additions;
- (c) Annual Financial and Budget Approvals;
- (d) Special Resolutions;
- (e) Disciplinary Action.

4.19. Voting by absentee ballot will be conducted as follows:

- (a) All absentee ballots shall be made in writing, either by electronic methods or via Canada Post and received as indicated and directed in the notice pertaining to the vote no later than three (3) days (72 hours) prior to the vote taking place;
- (b) Should a absentee ballot be received by a Member and said Member be present at a meeting the absentee ballot document shall be considered null and void and the Member must cast a vote during the proceedings;
- (c) It is up to the individual Member to ensure that absentee ballots are completed as directed and received as directed in the notice of the vote. Any absentee ballots received that are not provided as directed shall be considered null and void;
- (d) All absentee ballot voting shall be conducted using the specified absentee ballot form provided by the Society and will accompany all meeting notices where absentee ballot voting is permitted.

5. ARTICLE 5 – DIRECTORS

5.1. The Directors shall have no special powers and shall perform only the duties as approved by the Membership and will adhere to;

- (a) all laws affecting the Society
- (b) these Bylaws

(c) All contracts and agreements entered into by the Society

5.2. A Director of the Society shall:

- (a) Act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the Society; and,
- (b) Exercise the care, diligence and skill of a reasonably prudent person, in exercising his powers and performing his functions as a Director; and,
- (c) Conduct themselves in a manner that reflects the Society Constitution and Bylaws.

5.3. The number of Directors must be a minimum of six (6) and a maximum of ten (10) or a greater number as determined by the Members, from time to time, at a General Meeting.

- (f) No Director shall hold the same position in office for more than two (2) consecutive terms; and,
- (g) Any Director who ceases to be a Member of the Society shall cease to be a Member of the Board.

5.5. An election of the Directors may be at an annual General Meeting by acclamation; otherwise it must be by ballot.

5.6. The Directors may, at any time and from time to time, appoint a Member as a Director to fill a vacancy in the Board, only for the period of time to fill that vacancy until the next election process takes place.

5.7. If a Director resigns his or her office or otherwise ceases to hold office, the remaining voting Directors may appoint a Member to take the place of the former Director. A Director appointed by the Board to fill a vacancy ceases to be a Director at the end of the unexpired portion of the term of office of the individual whose departure from office created the vacancy.

5.8. An act or proceeding of the Directors is not invalid merely because there is less than the prescribed number of Directors in office providing the act or proceeding is approved by the Membership.

5.9. The Membership may, by special resolution at a General Meeting, remove a Director before the expiration of his or her term of office and may elect a successor to complete the term of office.

5.10. Directors and Executive Officers shall serve without remuneration but a Director or Officer shall be entitled to be reimbursed for all expenses necessarily and reasonably incurred by such Director while engaged in the affairs of the Society, subject to expense reimbursement policies as determined by the Membership.

5.11. A Director, or person(s) or business, related or associated to said Director, may not be employed or hold a paid contract with the Society for a period of twenty-four (24) months after resigning from their position as a Director.

5.12. The Board of Directors shall establish Conflict of Interest policies and procedures to govern the participation of the Directors in its decision making, which will be approved by the Membership.

5.13. The Society, through an act of the Directors, must purchase and maintain general liability insurance in such amounts and to such limits as the Members deem expedient against any and all actions, causes of action, suits, debts, contracts, claims, costs, expenses, compensation, demands, damages, and liabilities of every kind and nature whatsoever, whether in law or in equity or by statute, and how so ever arising out of any person acting as an officer, Director or Committee Member of the Society, unless negligence proven.

5.14. The Society will have in place policies and procedures, approved by the Membership, that ensure all Director Elects qualify as Directors in accordance with the Societies Act.

5.15. All Directors of the Society shall within fourteen (14) days upon election or acclamation to the Board comply with the requirements of the Society Act and agree to a Criminal Records Check in accordance with the Criminal Record Review Act.

(a) In the event a Director or Director elect refuses or otherwise fails to provide such consent, the Director is automatically expelled from the Board of Directors without notice.

6. ARTICLE 6 – PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

6.1. The Directors shall meet at the Joe Rich Community Hall to conduct business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings and proceedings, on any notice and in any manner convenient to the Directors in accordance with the Act. The Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held regularly at least six (6) times each year.

- (a) The first Directors Meeting following the Annual General Meeting shall be designated the Inaugural Meeting of the Board of Directors.
- (b) The newly elected Directors at the Annual General Meeting shall take office as of the Inaugural Meeting.
